

The ESOL Podcast 21 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 4

The ESOL Podcast 21 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 4 is the fourth in our series on Community Organising. Part 1 looked at exploring problems faced by ESOL students; Part 2 looked at the role of research; in Part 3 the students talked about power. In Part 4 they discuss taking action and evaluating the action.

There is one worksheet available at www.liveworksheets.com. It can be completed online or be downloaded for use in face-to-face classrooms. It includes edited audio files from the podcast episode, which can be played through the website.

The worksheet is aimed at around Entry 3.

Worksheet

<https://www.liveworksheets.com/dc1623678cz>

The first activity looks at vocabulary for taking action.

The second is a listening gap fill about evaluating action.

The last activity focuses on a proverb Hurena used in the episode;

“If a baby doesn’t cry, the mother doesn’t give it milk.”

This activity allows the students to share proverbs from their countries which can provide a focus for a follow up lesson.

The episode in this series are:

The ESOL Podcast 7 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 1 – Exploring Problems

The ESOL Podcast 8 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 2 – Research

The ESOL Podcast 9 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 3 – Power

The ESOL Podcast 21 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 4 – Action and Evaluation

The ESOL Podcast 22 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 5 – Experiences of CO outside the UK

