

The ESOL Podcast 8 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 2

The ESOL Podcast 8 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 2 is the second in our series on Community Organising. Part 1 looked at exploring problems faced by ESOL students. Part 2 looks at the roles of research.

There is one worksheets available at www.liveworksheets.com It can be completed online or be downloaded for use in face-to-face classrooms. It includes edited audio files from the podcast episode, which can be played through the website.

The worksheet is aimed at around Entry 3.

Worksheet

The first activity focuses on the process of community organising. It is a listening task with a language focus on expressing order, using ordinals and time markers.

The second activity focuses on the sentences in the episode that use “have to”. Students match the second half of sentences that start “To be a good listener...” and “To be a good leader...”

Finally there is a free writing activity for students to answer the question “What do you have to do to be a community organiser?”

The other episode in this series are:

The ESOL Podcast 7 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 1 – Exploring Problems

The ESOL Podcast 9 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 3 – Power

The ESOL Podcast 21 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 4 – Action and Evaluation

The ESOL Podcast 22 – ESOL and Community Organising – Part 5 – Experiences of CO outside the UK
